Revisions to approved permitted plans for all projects (excluding one and two family dwellings)

Field Revisions occasionally exceed the time limitations for a field inspector to approve on site. Field revisions that may trigger additional fees or zoning issues that cannot be addressed in the field will need to be reviewed by office personnel. A new review of prior approved plans with requested changes may be needed, if :

- Any fire rated elements are being changed
- The change affects more than one trade/contractor
- Exiting, Life Safety or Fire Protection are impacted
- Field Inspector Request/Other _____
